In order to keep the price of Ascending as low as possible, speed the processing of your request, and prevent our poor accounting people from thinking they've gone to that "other place", the Merciful Goddess has decreed that we cannot accept Credit Cards or PayPal.

Please fill in your return address in the space provided below (it will be used to create a mailing label, so please print neatly). Important: this offer is only available to customers in the US and Canada only. We cannot ship outside of our license territory, no matter how much you beg, lest we bring down upon ourselves the Divine Wrath of our Holy Licensor.

We will not cash your cheque/money order until we are ready to ship your Collectors Edition to you. All orders will be shipped via US Mail. Please allow 4-6 weeks for delivery.
